What a Friend We Have in Jesus

526

WORDS: Joseph M. Scriven, ca. 1855

1. What a friend
we have in Jesus,
all our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
everything to God in prayer!

O what peace
we often forfeit,
O what needless
pain we bear,
all because we do not carry
everything to God in prayer.

2. Have we trials
and temptations?

Is there trouble anywhere?

We should never
be discouraged;

take it to the Lord in prayer.

Can we find
a friend so faithful
who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows
our every weakness;
take it to the Lord in prayer.

WELCOME

Hello Friends!

Welcome To Our On-line Worship!

Good News!

Friends, hear the Good News: We are God's holy and adopted children. The love and grace of God is beyond measure, and you are included in that love. Jesus going to the Cross is proof of God's love for us. Know that you are forgiven and blessed to love and serve in God's Kingdom.

Feel the awesome Power and Presence of the Holy Spirit this morning as we are healed, forgiven, and loved

John 9:1-17

As he walked along, he saw a man blind from birth.

His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God’s works might be revealed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man’s eyes, saying to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see.

The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?” Some were saying, “It is he.” Others were saying, “No, but it is someone like him.” He kept saying, “I am the man.”

But they kept asking him, “Then how were your eyes opened?” He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ Then I went and washed and received my sight.” They said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I do not know.”

They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.

Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see.” Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?” And they were divided. So they said again to the blind man, “What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened.” He said, “He is a prophet.”

A photograph of a dirt path winding through a grassy, rocky landscape. The path leads up a hill to a large, dark wooden cross standing on a small stone base. The background shows rolling hills and a clear sky. The text "Seeing the Path" is overlaid in white on the right side of the image.

Pastoral Prayer

Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.

Silent Prayer, Pastoral Prayer
and Lord's Prayer

Give us this day
our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.

(The Lord's Prayer continued)

And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

(The Lord's Prayer continued)

The Old Rugged Cross

504

WORDS: George Bennard, 1913 (1 Cor. 1:22-25)

1. On a hill far away
stood an old rugged cross,
the emblem of
suffering and shame;

and I love that old cross
where the dearest
and best
for a world of lost
sinners was slain.

Refrain

So I'll cherish
the old rugged cross,
till my trophies
at last I lay down;

I will cling to the
old rugged cross,
and exchange it
some day for a crown.

2. O that old rugged cross,
so despised by the world,
has a wondrous
attraction for me;

for the dear
Lamb of God
left his glory above
to bear it
to dark Calvary.

Refrain

So I'll cherish
the old rugged cross,
till my trophies
at last I lay down;

I will cling to the
old rugged cross,
and exchange it
some day for a crown.
